

The Queenslander Pictorial.

The "Allies City" Reopened in Brisbane
Two Novel Features of the New "City"

The Eastern Side

The "Harp"

MOTORING BEHIND CIVILISATION.

Crossing the dry bed of a creek in Western Queensland.

Where one horse power beats twenty.

Defence and Attack in the Air.

THE COASTAL DEFENCE UNIT FIGHTING THE BATTLE OF ENGLAND ON THE 15TH OF SEPTEMBER 1940. THE AIRSHIP IS A RIGID AIRSHIP.

(General Service photo)

A PILOT IN THE ACT OF DROPPING A BOMB OVER THE ARMY.

(Photographed from another aircraft)

(General Service photo)

BIRMINGHAM UNIVERSITY TRANSFORMED INTO A MILITARY HOSPITAL.

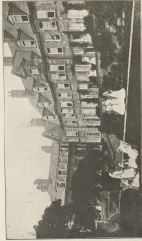

These magnificent buildings, which have been transformed into a military hospital, are the finest in the city. The building is the largest in the city, and is the finest in the city. The building is the largest in the city, and is the finest in the city. The building is the largest in the city, and is the finest in the city.

THE GREAT HALL, AS A HALL FOR DORMING SOLDIERS.

BIRMINGHAM UNIVERSITY, AND THE FIRST ARMY MEDICAL HOSPITAL.

THE MEDICAL OFFICERS' QUARTERS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

THE AMERICAN INFANTRY AND ARTILLERY OF THE BRITISH BATTLESHIP, WHICH WAS DESTROYED BY THE JAPANESE BATTLESHIP, THE MICHIGAN, IN THE BATTLE OF LUTOW, 1904. THE SOLDIERS WERE KILLED BY THE JAPANESE BATTLESHIP, THE MICHIGAN, IN THE BATTLE OF LUTOW, 1904.

—From the collection of the War Department, Washington, D.C.

THE AMERICAN INFANTRY AND ARTILLERY OF THE BRITISH BATTLESHIP, WHICH WAS DESTROYED BY THE JAPANESE BATTLESHIP, THE MICHIGAN, IN THE BATTLE OF LUTOW, 1904. THE SOLDIERS WERE KILLED BY THE JAPANESE BATTLESHIP, THE MICHIGAN, IN THE BATTLE OF LUTOW, 1904.

—From the collection of the War Department, Washington, D.C.

